Sundays in Lent:

We shall be having the Book of Common Worship in Traditional Language (as normal for the rest of the year)
We do not of course sing the Gloria, but the Kyries during this season.

The intercessions will be the shorter Litany (said)

The Gospel intro is not the Alleluias as normal but
"Praise to you, O Christ, King of Eternal Glory"

Collect for Lent 2

Almighty God, you show to those who are in error the light of your truth, that they may return to the way of righteousness: grant to all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may reject those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen

Readings for Holy Communion:

Philippians 3.17-4.1

Brothers and sisters, join in imitating me, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us. For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ; I have often told you of them, and now I tell you even with tears. Their end is destruction; their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame; their minds are set on earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things subject to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

This is the Word of the Lord Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.
The Lord is a great God, O that today you would listen to his voice.
Harden not your hearts.

Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory.

The Gospel: Luke 4.1-13

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory be to you, O Lord.

At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, 'Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you.' He said to them, 'Go and tell that fox for me, "Listen, I am casting out demons and performing cures today and tomorrow, and on the third day I finish my work. Yet today, tomorrow, and the next day I must be on my way, because it is impossible for a prophet to be killed away from Jerusalem." Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often have I desired to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you were not willing! See, your house is left to you. And I tell you, you will not see me until the time comes when you say, "Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord."'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ

Intercessions: -

In the church, we pray for our Bishops Alastair and Humphrey. In the Derby Diocesan Cycle of prayer we pray for the Parish of Tansley. In the World Church we pray for the Diocese of Birmingham, England.

For the world We pray for victims of Haiti and for the work of healing in that land. We pray for those suffering the violence of war. We continue our prayers for peace and for those injured and bereaved from terrorism or crime. We pray for those most hurt by the economic problems of the world.

For our local community, on the 28th of the month for residents of farms not otherwise in our street cycle of prayer. We pray for those who work away from home.

We pray for the sick. We pray for all the sick and those who care for them. Especially we remember, Jean Statham, Maureen Caley, Evie Lena Dyke, Fay Standen, Dennis and Morag Kinchlea, Dennis Comins, Philip Treece, Sylvia Dickenson, Derek and Kathleen Sharpe, Sheila Dore, Joyce Chater, Ruth Audis, Elsie Ward, Ivan Spademan, Derek Musson, George Bunting, Louis Smith.

We commemorate the departed:

Grace Mary Letty Roberts and Ruby Wallace.

We remember with thanks all the Saints.
